

BC Athletics Officials' Newsletter

May 3, 2018

Hello Officials,

If you haven't done so already, please note the following information regarding an addition that you will need to make to the IAAF Competition Rule Books that you have received.

IAAF Rule Books

ERRATA—IAAF Competition Rules 2018-2019

The coil-bound version of the IAAF Competition Rules 2018-2019 that has been distributed to all Level 2 and higher officials (who have paid their BC Athletics dues for 2018) has some differences with the most recent version that is available on the IAAF website. The differences have been documented in an ERRATA that can be obtained from the Officials page of the BC Athletics website: <http://www.bcathletics.org/Officials/>

We encourage you to obtain a copy of the errata and update your copy of the rule book. The electronic version of the IAAF Competition Rules should be consulted if any clarification on the changes is required (<https://www.iaaf.org/about-iaaf/documents/rules-regulations>).

Officials are encouraged to regularly check the IAAF website for other amendments to the competition rules: <https://www.iaaf.org/about-iaaf/documents/rules-regulations>.

Please see any of the BC Athletics Officials' Committee members if you have any questions.

A Reminder about Officials' Expense Claims

Member officials are entitled to repayment of authorized expenses for travel to events, and for "expendables" (meet supplies). Expenses for local travel require no specific authorization. Expenses for "out-of-Region travel are only eligible if given prior approval by the Officials' Committee. Officials must work at the event for a substantial period (at least 4-6 hours) to be eligible for repayment. Officials cannot claim travel expenses for meets in which they also intend to coach, parent and/or compete. Carpooling or sharing rides is strongly encouraged where feasible. A rationale for travelling as an individual must be provided (if other officials are travelling to the same meet). If you have been invited to a Meet Carol Cull, your travel expenses will have been pre-authorized.

If you are selected to attend one of the following Meets, your travel expenses are also pre-authorized:

- BC High School Championships
- Langley Pacific Invitational and BC Master's Championships
- BC Jamboree (BC Championships)
- BCJD Championships
- BCJD Pentathlon Championships
- Canadian Masters Championships
- BC Summer Games
- BC 55+ Games

Reimbursement rates for 2018:

Local travel $.30 per kilometer, $.40 for a carpool

To another Region $.20 per kilometer, $.25 for a carpool

Guidelines are posted in the Committee Handbook. Some general rules for claiming expenses:

- claims will only be paid for current BC Athletics members
- claims must be on the printable form (pdf) or the Download fillable form
- claims must be submitted within 30 days to John Cull for approval
- receipts must be submitted
- list specific events (meets) and any members of the car-pool
- do not claim for meals...eat whatever is provided at the event
- expenses for travel outside of your local area must be approved by the Committee Chair on behalf of the Officials' Committee.

Officials funded by BCA for travel outside the Province are eligible for repayment of cost of the air travel (or equivalent cost) only.
