Summit Overview

GUEST PRESENTER: Don Babbitt

Don Babbitt is currently the Associate Head Coach and throws coach at the University of Georgia, where has worked for the past 23 years. Don is the CSCS Editor for the throwing events for the IAAF since 2010.

As a coach he has guided 53 athletes in major international competitions in all four throwing disciplines. These athletes have gone on to win 21 medals. The most notable of these athletes are 2004 Olympic and 2005 World Outdoor Shot Put Champion, Adam Nelson, and 2006 World Indoor and 2007 World Outdoor Shot Put Champion, Reese Hoffa.

As an educator, Don consults nationally and internationally providing coach education and mentorship for the throwing events.

GUEST PRESENTER: Anatoliy Bondarchuk

Anatoliy Bondarchuk took up athletics and hammer throwing in 1964, when he was 24-years-old. He soon rose to be one of the world's top hammer throwers. Bondarchuk came to prominence in 1969, winning his first Soviet title, followed by the European title. His winning mark of 74.68 at the European Championships was also a world record, which he bettered a month later with 75. In the 1972 Olympic final, Bondarchuk showed top form by throwing the gold medal mark of 75.50 in the first round.

After the 1974 Europeans Bondarchuk quit athletics and began to coach young Soviet hammer throwers Yuriy Sedykh and Juri Tamm. In 1976 he made a brief comeback to compete at the Olympics where he won a bronze medal.

Bondarchuk is a renowned throwing coach. He coached the 1980 and 1988 Soviet Olympic teams and from 1991-2004 was head coach of the Qatar national team. In 2004, Bondarchuk moved to Kamloops, British Columbia where he coached numerous athlete's, including Dylan Armstrong (Olympian 2008 Shot put bronze, 2012). Bondarchuk wrote 11 textbooks about training methodology and nearly 200 articles. His two-volume work Transfer of Training in Sports is considered the classic text on that subject. Personal Best\ : HT 77.42 (1976).

GUEST PRESENTER: Dylan Armstrong

Dylan Armstrong is a former shot putter for Canada. He is a two-time Pan American Games champion, a Commonwealth Games champion, 2011 Diamond League Champion, and has also won world championship silver and bronze medals. He was awarded the bronze medal at the 2008 Summer Olympics seven years after the event in 2015, following a doping disqualification by competitor Andrei Mikhnevich. Armstrong holds the Canadian national record and the Pan American Games record for shot put, and is a former holder of the Commonwealth games record. With his world championship medal, Armstrong was the first Canadian to reach the podium in a throwing event in a major global competition.
