

BEST IN THE WEST TRACK AND FIELD TOURS PRESENTS: HAWAII MARCH 16-MARCH 26, 2012

Kick start your 2012 track and field season with a training camp in tropical Hawaii! The weather will be beautiful and we will be located within close proximity of Waikiki beach. We will be training at the track and field facility at the University of Hawaii as well as local parks and running trails. There will be an opportunity to compete at the Rainbow Relays on Saturday, March 24th.

We have once again put together an excellent complement of coaches to work with high school athletes ranging in experience from novice to national team level. This training camp is designed to integrate biomechanical work, event-specific training methods, nutrition, mobility, psychological training and a lot of fun [Beach time].
