

INTRODUCING CIBC TEAM NEXT: celebrating a new generation of young Canadian athletes

As a Lead Partner of the Toronto 2015 Pan/Para Pan Am Games, CIBC is proud to help create a lasting sport legacy in Canada. Through financial support, mentoring and skill development opportunities, CIBC Team Next is designed to help tomorrow's athletic stars reach their full potential - in sport and in life - as every Canadian cheers them on.

WANT TO BE CONSIDERED FOR CIBC TEAM NEXT?

Athletics Canada is now accepting applications from provincial associations up to a maximum of five (5) athletes per province. Athletes are encouraged to apply to their provincial branch using the enclosed form. All nominations to provincial branches must be received by August 2. Late nominations will not be accepted. Provincial nominations will then be reviewed by a committee comprised of provincial branch representatives and Athletics Canada staff. This committee will select five (5) athletes to move forward in the process. These athletes will be contacted (by August 12) and have until August 16 to complete the final step of the application as part of the national selection process for CIBC Team Next. Successful nominees in this final step will be contacted the first week of September 2013.

The Athletics Canada / provincial branch committee will use the following criteria to choose five athletes which will advance to final selection:

- Minimum of one (1) female athlete
- Minimum of one (1) male athlete
- Minimum of one (1) Para-athletics athlete
- Athletes with identified potential to make Athletics Canada's Toronto 2015 team
- NCAA athletes, due to sponsorship restrictions and NCAA regulations, are not eligible
