

UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA VOLUNTEER TRACK & FIELD / CROSS COUNTRY POSITION - ENDURANCE

Position: Volunteer Lead Coach, Endurance, Assistant to the Head Coach (Cross Country and Track and Field Athletics)
Post Date: July 1, 2015
Application Deadline: July 12, 2015
Position Type: Volunteer / Honorarium, commensurate with experience and budget availability
Resume and cover letter to: laurier.primeau@ubc.ca

The University of British Columbia Cross Country and Track and Field Teams have a long-standing tradition of both collegiate and international excellence, having won the past three NAIA Women's Cross Country Titles and placing four Thunderbird alumni on the London 2012 Olympic Team. As the Lead Endurance Coach your primary function will be to develop and execute on agreed-upon training plans for cross country and endurance track and field athletes for all events 800 meters and longer. Other job requirements will include but not be limited to:

- Leading on competition entries and liaising between the Head Coach and other assistants, and interfacing with the entry processes for all cross country and track and field competitions
- Weekend competition transportation assistance when required
- Participation in staff and team meetings
- Participation in fundraising activities
- Direct liaising with the Head Coach
- Community partnership facilitation
- Recruiting assistance
- Other responsibilities as agreed by the Head Coach

The successful candidate will be able to articulate an athlete-centered, coach driven model; will participate in team-coaching when appropriate; and will adhere to the expectations of conduct held by Coaches of Canada. Further, the candidate will have a strong understanding of, and ability to implement both the 'what to coach' – training parameters, technical models, integrated ancillary inputs, recovery modalities, injury prevention techniques; and the 'how to coach' – catering to and delivering on the required interpersonal communication skills that are unique to each athlete. The ability to express an entrepreneurial approach to the business of track and field athletics will be considered a strong asset, as will be a demonstration of the importance of on-going, life-long learning for coaches.

Resume and cover letter submissions should include:

- Current NCCP level
- Your hours of coaching availability throughout the year
- Educational background
- Current integration with relevant community organizations
