

Planning a FUNtastic Competition!

Higher. Faster. Farther. “Funner.” The pandemic has accelerated an overdue transformation in sport. Organizations that have been able to pivot are thriving. This interactive session will focus on helping participants identify challenges and solutions in delivering meaningful, fun competitions, assess their roles in improving competition for all athletes, and how to develop processes to create meaningful, fun competition. Come prepared for lively discussion!

About the Presenter:

This session will be delivered by Glenn Young an Educational Change & Healthy Living Consultant. An educator by profession, Glenn recently retired after 35 years as the District Athletic Coordinator, a Department Head, Athletic Director, Physical Education Teacher, and Coach for the Surrey School District (the largest school district in BC). Glenn is passionate about speaking of the important of physical education and how it prepares the brain and body for learning, and ultimately developing physical literacy.
