Fortius Athlete Development Centre, Burnaby BC

November 28th, 2014

The fifth annual RBC Sports Day in Canada took place during the week of November 24-28 with over 800,000 participants and 2000 registered sporting events across Canada! As a grant recipient of the RBC Learn to Play Project, the Run Jump Throw program was delivered at three different locations across BC. In partnership with School District No. 8 (Kootney Lake), Slocan’s W.E. Graham Community School After-School Sports program was able to host Run Jump Throw “Try It” session. Similarly, in Vancouver Run Jump Throw and Golf BC’s Playground 2 Fairway program were open for kids to try for free at Little Mountain Neighborhood House in Vancouver. Lastly, right at home at Fortius Sport & Health Centre in Burnaby, Run Jump Throw was a part of the “Come And Try Open House” alongside many other PSO youth sport programs including Golf, Tennis, Judo, Canoe/Kayak, Special Olympics, Gymnastics + many more!

The RBC Learn to Play Project, in partnership with ParticipACTION, Canadian Sport for Life and Active Healthy Kids Canada, is a wide-ranging initiative to help children develop the confidence and skills they need to enable them to become active for life. For more information on the RBC Learn to Play Grant Project visit rbc.com/learntoplay

BC Athletics is proud to be a RBC Learn to Play Project 2014 Grant Recipient! Run Jump Throw Program development is planned for 2015 in the Kootney’s region, specifically targeted at communities of Nelson, Slocan and Creston within track a& field clubs, recreation centres and schools.