

Sean Dixon, Royal City Track & Field Club Head Coach Retires

After a stunning 16 years of service with the Royal City Track & Field Club, Coach Sean Dixon is retiring to enjoy his days in the sun.

His contributions to our club are vast and his legacy lasting.

Coach Sean is known for his overall leadership, dedication to the sport, to the athletes and coaches, and to recruiting a top-notch team of coaches. Many of the coaches have stayed with the club long after their child-athlete has moved on. Coach Sean's infectious enthusiasm has been the reason for many of the club's volunteers for joining and returning year after year.

Under Sean's leadership, RCTFC grew from a club of 20 athletes to over 200 members. The club has not only grown in size but also in quality, producing numerous provincial and national champions. Coach Sean was directly involved in coaching the middle distance group and has produced athletes that have competed at the World Junior Championships.

Athletes remember his famous moniker "You're on my time now!"

Well...Coach Sean - Now "It is YOUR time!"

It is with the utmost gratitude we congratulate Coach Sean on his retirement and wish him all the very best. We will see you at the Track!
