 2. Chair noted it was a success to be able to put on higher performance events in BC for the athletes.
 3. Brian noted the project is showing great success, adapting and providing opportunities to get competition in to achieve olympic performance or solidify their performance.
- i. BC Throws Project - Megann VanderVilet
- A. Items of note
 1. Two major activations this last year - development camp and throws summit for coach education. Tentatively planned for in Kamloops this year and then a virtual throws summit in November with goal to get big names from sport. Also a two day coach education seminar. Looking to continue to grow those initiatives.
- j. Sprints/Hurdles/Jumps Project - Tara Self
- A. Items of note
 1. Did have a sprint hurdles camp prior to COVID. so something along those lines to be organized for next spring. Working with Megann to put together.
 2. In the past years, warm weather training camps. Will depend on how it goes in the US with COVID, but would be nice to get back to warm weather training camps to encourage the athletes to attend.
- k. Coaching Education – Jennifer Brown
- A. No items of note
- l. Membership - Sam Collier
- A. Items of note
 1. Membership stats for 2021 will be available in January as numbers will include those up to the end of December. Will post on the website and will also send to all the clubs.
 2. TrackieMe being relaunched between September 1st and the end of the year with improvements to the system. The registration system, TrackieReg, will be better connected to TrackieMe. Sam will let the club registrars know the exact date as soon as it's known.
 3. Asked to keep member's information and the club information up to date on TrackieMe.
 4. Can start renewing for 2022 as of September 1st for individual and club renewals. Clubs will need to renew before December 31st.
 5. Not know yet if COVID waivers will be required for next year. Sam will let the registrars know. Brian noted they will have to continue until BC Athletics knows otherwise.
 6. Sam thanked the club registrars and administrators for all their hard work this past year. It's very much appreciated.
 7. Chair thanked Sam for all her hard work, especially given all the changes and updates to membership over the last 18 months.

12. SPECIAL PRESENTATION - 2022 & 2023 Athletics Canada National Track & Field Championships - Brent Dolfo

- b. Combined Championships to be impacted by the National championships as well as Para Athletics Championships.
- c. In the process of adding race walk, likely to be held at the Mission Raceway, which could push the date to June 22, 2022.
- d. Meet will also be qualifier for Canada for the World Championships in Eugene later in the summer.

- e. Last National Championships held in BC was in 2004. Hoping that all the Clubs will join in terms of volunteering and opportunities for younger athletes.
- f. Striving to continue to make the championships free for those under 12.
- g. Hosting championships is the best opportunity to get the local government to upgrade the facilities. Have been able to do that again but do have a few issues to iron out, but making good progress.
- h. It was asked if there will be marketing and communications for volunteering? Brent noted, yes, Harry Jerome had an online sign up system. Looking to put something similar in place and providing links to the clubs.
- i. Brent offered for anyone to reach out to him if they has any other questions.
- j. Brian noted they were continuing to work with the organizing committee and facilities and expect things to move ahead well.
- k. Chair thanked Brent and the Committee for their work and noted it was a great venue for the event. The host committee has a history of putting on good events for the sport and believe the athletes are looking forward to competing. Glad there's an opportunity to host these events.

13. BREAK - There was a short break at 11:57am. The meeting was reconvened at 12:10pm.

14. FINANCE

- a. Finance Report
 - A. Items of note
 - 1. Report includes a graph of 2021 audited year end, operating budget and draft budget.
 - 2. Engaged BDO in regards to the annual financial audit. Clean audit by the association with no notes relative to necessary improvements to the financial accounting. Gerry Dragomuir , the accountant, has been very diligent with regard to the accounting and assisting with the preparation for the annual audit.
 - 3. Brian said Ota has indicated, in the report, the balance sheet at the end of March was robust. Finance committee will be meeting to discuss how to manage any significant surplus, to the association, from year end revenues and will bring forward recommendations to the Board.
 - 4. Ota thanked Brian and the Staff for their hard work and all their assistance through a challenging and changing year.
 - 5. Chair echoed Ota's statement of the challenging year and the numerous changes. A lot of added work was needed. Chair thanked both Ota and Brian for all their hard work. Survived and come out strong thanks to the hard work and diligence of all.
- b. 2020/2021 Audited Financial Statement

15. CEO

- a. CEO Report
 - A. Items of note
 - 1. Brian thanked everyone for attending.
 - 2. Report references several things:
 - a. Facilities - changes due to COVID
 - b. Insurance costs going up each year, this year significantly more than the previous year.
 - c. Awards - pivot and adjust for the awards for 2020. Thanked Sabrina, Meghann and Clif and Jen Brown for all their work on the awards for outstanding performance and achievements.

3. The Strategic Plan 2017 - 2020 has been pushed out to the end of March 2022 due to the impact of COVID. Going forward Marcus will lead in the 2022-2024 Strategic Plan. Looking forward to that and the engagements with membership in October.
 4. RJTW welcomed new opportunities for Sabrina's engagement with the Clubs.
 5. Coach education online with limited technical sessions managed well by Jen. Opportunity to get coach leaders upgraded.
 6. Officials recruitment redefined the officials development pathway. Looking forward on retention to higher levels
 7. Welcomed Meghann to Track & Field. Engaging the Clubs and Officials, providing professional development opportunities. Adding expertise to the Throws Project and working with the Track & Field Committee to bring back some important initiatives. Also dipping into facilities review with staff.
 8. Road & Cross Country was the most severely impacted, having to go virtual. Opportunity to maintain contact with previous and new participants. Partnerships with Triathlon BC for Event Directors seminar which was quite successful. Cross Country camp going ahead in modified format and Whistler 50 hopes to return to in person.
 9. Through Canada Post Community Foundation grant, para athletics position lead by Katie Miyazaki, engaging Clubs on Para-Athletics in an effort to help support them welcoming to para athletes and expand their capacity as a club.
 10. Masters - Please refer to their report. Records also included. Not able to be represented today at the AGM as the Track & Field Championships are happening today and tomorrow.
 11. Competitions - Introduced, with board approval, membership variances that expanded the participation. Open until the end of the calendar year. Hope to help with club revenue return and assist with increased participation and remove financial barriers.
 12. Organizational capacity - Able to maintain operations in many areas to provide programs in services, in a modified way. Able to retain staff with the federal wage and rent subsidies and recovery grants. Enhanced communication through the e-newsletter. Connected MLAs, Athletics Canada, branches, partners and Provincial agencies. Social media presence took a leap forward. Able to track and report on increased engagements through social media. Clif noted an increased number of subscribers.
 13. Financial Resources - took a hit over the last year. membership dropped 1500 over the last year which was an impact of 54% reduction on the membership revenue. Over the last fiscal, drop of 56% revenue but able to reduce expenditures by 42% (ex. national championships in 2021 due to travel restrictions). BC Government/viaSport Local Sport Relief Fund provided support, most recently with the viaSport Amateur Sport League/Series providing support to the BC Super Series and the Vancouver Island and Interior Road Running Series. Secured other grants to offset resources. Opportunities and funding were critical to helping Clubs and BC Athletics.
 14. Strategic Plan - Planned membership engagement October 13th and 27th, 2021.
 15. Anticipate full throttle movement forward in 2022. Waiting to see case number drop again, but will need to dedicate time to reconnect with program partners and sponsors. Federal and Provincial governments will continue to be key partners. However core funding and gaming grants need to have a degree of caution and expectation as not sure where going in 2022 and beyond. Will be a three to four year recovery process to get back to pre COVID.
 16. Infrastructure - opportunity during covid for communities to do upgrading and enhancements.
 17. Continue to enhance communication.
 18. Thanks to the membership - individuals and Clubs, Coaches, Officials, BC Athletics Committees, Board of Directors, Event Organizers, Sponsors, Parents & Volunteers. Your patience is greatly appreciated.
 19. Sincere thanks to Sam Collier, Jen Brown, Chris Winter, Megann VanderV  Katie Miyazaki, Richard Lee, Sabrina Nettey, Clif Cunningham and the summer staff - Jennifer Erickson and Kaleigh Churchmich.
 20. Chair noted his thanks to Brian and echoed his thanks to all of the staff for their hard work.
- ii. No questions were asked.

- A copy of the resolutions were posted on the BCA website and included in the links to the agenda emailed to all the delegates on Friday, August 20, 2021.

a. Post Secondary Club Membership - Team Roster Memberships

(Laurier Primeau/Hilary Stellingwerff) BE IT RESOLVED THAT “ATHLETICS POST-SECONDARY (SCHOOL) AFFILIATE MEMBERSHIP BE AMENDED AND THAT THIS CLUB MEMBERSHIP TYPE BE SET UP TO BE ALIGNED WITH THE CURRENT “SCHOOL CLUB” AND “SCHOOL DISTRICT” MEMBERSHIPS:

- ATHLETES ON THE UNIVERSITY TRACK & FIELD TEAM ARE PERMITTED TO TAKE PART IN BC ATHLETICS SANCTIONED EVENTS WHEN THEY ARE ENTERED INTO AN EVENT BY THE UNIVERSITY.
- THE PERIOD OF VALID ENTRY FOR UNIVERSITY ATHLETES IS FROM SEPTEMBER 1ST THROUGH TO MAY 30TH.
- ATHLETES ARE NOT REQUIRED TO PAY THE $3.00 SCHOOL STUDENT DAY OF EVENT MEMBERSHIP FEE
- ATHLETE PERFORMANCES ARE NOT RECOGNIZED FOR RANKINGS, TEAM SELECTIONS, RECORDS, SERVICES, FINANCIAL SUPPORT AND OTHER BENEFITS ASSOCIATED WITH A COMPETITIVE ATHLETE MEMBERSHIP.
- ATHLETES WHO WISH TO HAVE THEIR PERFORMANCES RECOGNIZED FOR RANKINGS, TEAM SELECTION, SERVICES, FINANCIAL SUPPORT AND OTHER BENEFITS WILL BE REQUIRED TO TAKE OUT A BC ATHLETICS COMPETITIVE ATHLETE MEMBERSHIP.

PROPOSED AMENDEMENTS:

- THE POST-SECONDARY CLUB MEMBERSHIP FEE BE: $2  PER YEAR + GST
- ALL POST-SECONDARY CLUB COACHES MUST BE ANNUAL COACH MEMBERS OF BC ATHLETICS
- WHEN ENTERING A BC ATHLETICS SANCTIONED COMPETITION THE POST-SECONDARY TEAM, WHO ARE NOT COMPETITIVE ATHLETE MEMBERS OF BC ATHLETICS OR ANOTHER ATHLETICS CANADA PROVINCIAL/TERRITORIAL BRANCH MEMBERS OR A NATIONAL ATHLETICS FEDERATION, PAY A $3.00 BC ATHLETICS DAY OF EVENT MEMBERSHIP FEE.

- It was noted that Post Secondary Clubs will have one vote at the Annual General Meeting and Special Meetings of BC Athletics. It was also noted that the Mover and Seconder of this motion have provided feedback on the amendments and that the BC Athletics Board of Directors supports the intent of this motion and the amendments as outlined.
- Laurier noted that the motion represents UBC, University of Victoria, Trinity University and UBCO, but not Simon Fraser University, so not for all universities. Laurier provided further background for the resolution and noted that many are full members so this would not affect them as they would continue to pay full membership fees. This was to be more in line with what high schools pay.
- Greg White highlighted the proposed amendments and Laurier noted Brian emailed the amendments to both Laurier and Hilary and they were in agreement. It was confirmed that the amendments had been taken into account for the current resolution being proposed.
- Question was asked if the school membership allows for ranking. Laurier clarified it does not, and those university athletes who want rankings will have to purchase a full competitive membership.

Vote was called on the motion for the amended resolution

Vote was passed by the delegates. CARRIED

b. Entry Fees: BC Athletics Championship and Owned Events
